

Skills workshop

Use a community room to provide a fun, interactive learning experience for the activity of your choice.

This could range from Salsa dancing to a cooking course, and could be a one-off or recurring event.

Remember to:

Ask around, what type of activities would your friends and community be interested in paying for?

Summer games and competition

Perfect for a small field or large garden, set-up a selection of outdoor games such as skittles and beat-the-goalie, and charge per game.

Remember to:

Check requirements for health and safety, risk assessment and insurance.

Did you know?

Ask for volunteers to help organise the event on the day.

Bake-sale

Bake-up a storm with the help of a few friends and set up a stall at local festival or fayre.

Remember to:

Account for all the hidden costs including ingredients and overheads.

Did you know?

You can raise more money if you sell your cakes in slices and save 1 whole cake for a raffle.

Fundraising ideas

(that won't break the bank)

Board and family games

Great for a large hall, you provide a variety of board games, and charge an entrance fee.

Remember to:

Provide enough chairs and a good variety of popular games.

Did you know?

Extra funds can be raised by selling snacks and drinks.
